POSSESSION LEGAL

To Hold the Defendants in Alaska Hearing Delayed.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
—Holding on a point in dispute as to whether a bottle of cherry wine in their possession of Tacoma said today that he did not believe the two illegal unless intent to violate was shown.

—Twenty-two saloonkeepers, a restaurant and two officers of a local distillery, were charged with violations of Volstead Act returned before Judge Landis by a Federal Grand Jury.

—If you want to be rid of extra calories, simply point them into preparation known as Casius Compound. This "point" is the discovery of a chemist, ends the pain, most immediately and in a time the case or calms down.

—A small bottle of Casius Compound, costing only a few cents, is sufficient to end the pain. It can be used in the privacy of the home and is absolutely safe, as cutting is dangerous and can grow faster.

—Don't suffer from extra calories and kill them. You can use Casius Compound. It will refund your money if it fails to do so. (Advertisement.)

REDS WILL RAID TURKS.

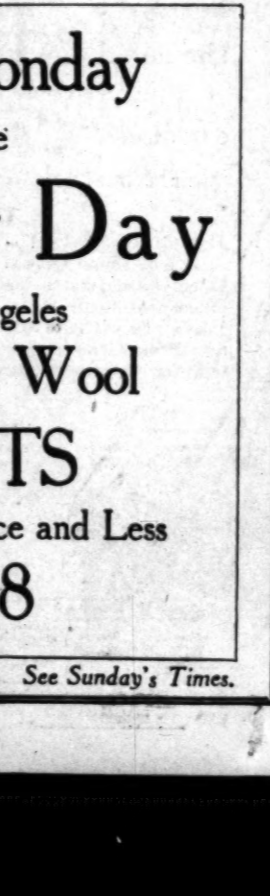

Agreement is Made by Kemal Pasha.
Russia Guarantees Integrity of Moslem States—Will Furnish Army.
Bolsheviks also Promise Financial and Material Help to Nationalists.
[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 25.—An agreement entered into by the Russian Bolsheviks and the Turkish Nationalist forces of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, according to private information received here today, embraces the following points:
(1) Assurance of territorial integrity of Turkey and restoration of Turkish administration in regions entirely inhabited by the Turks.
(2) Turkish control to be established in the new states of Arabia and Syria.
(3) Facilities to be accorded Russian delegates with a view to the development of communism in Turkey.
(4) Russia and Turkey agree to "liberate Moslem countries, such as India, Algeria, Egypt, Morocco and Tunisia from foreign yoke," and grant them independence.
(5) Russia recognizes the independence of the Moslem states in her territory and guarantees their integrity.
TO FURNISH FINANCIAL AID.
(6) Russia agrees to grant financial and material aid to Turkey. Russia agrees to dispatch two army corps, followed by more if necessary.
(7) Hostilities may be continued against the Entente, without previous reference to the national councils of both countries.
Other clauses concern mutual help in the matter of supplies and equipment, the reports indicate.
REDS COMING TO AMERICA.
[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Russian soviet authorities estimate that the unemployed in this country will number 5,000,000 by the end of the year and two representatives of the Third Internationale have been sent to organize soviets here, according to information from Moscow.
The representatives of the Internationale plan to arrive in the United States in December, it was said, and propose to form committees of the unemployed in connection with the Communist party, establishing soviets of each trade. Their mission, the advices stated, is to unite the revolutionary movement in America into one fighting body to bring about armed revolution.
While government officials discounted the Internationale's estimate of unemployment, every precaution is being taken to keep the soviet organizers from entering the United States.
REPORT ERIVAN ENTERED.
[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 24.—It is reported from a Turkish source that Erivan, capital of Armenia, has been entered by the Turkish Nationalist forces.
PETLURA ARMY DISARMED.
[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
LONDON, Nov. 24.—The last remnants of the troops of Gen. Petlura, the Ukrainian leader, have crossed the Ukrainian frontier into Poland and have been disarmed by Polish troops, according to Tuesday's official statement from the Russian soviet War Office.
SEMENOFF FORCE DISBANDING.
[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
TOKIO, Nov. 24.—Gen. Semenov, leader of anti-Bolshevik forces east of Lake Baikal, Siberia, is coming to Japan, it is in press dispatches. Assertions are made that his forces are disbanding.

Gift of Remnant Friday
Yardage Remnants
—Enthusiastic buying, all during the past month, has resulted in many hundreds of remnants of yardage goods—Cottons, Linens, Silks, Velvets, Ribbons, Laces, Trimmings, Gingham, Percales, Voiles, Wool Weaves, Flannels, Eiderdown, Robings, Coatings, Suitings—in fact, there will be usable lengths of practically every kind of yardage goods in the store—at Remnant Prices, Friday.
Wash Weaves Remnants
—Usable lengths of Percales, Madras, Gingham, Galates, Devonshire, Suitings, Crepes, Flannels, Eiderdown, Robing—enough in many pieces for a dress, blouse, apron, robe, etc.
Cotton Weaves Remnants
—White and colored cottons—plain and fancy weaves; good lengths of Voiles, Organdies, Batiste, Crepe, Cabardine, Nainsook, Longcloth, Lawn, Skirting, Corduroy, etc.—pieces that measure 1 1/2 to 5 yards.
Laces and Trimmings
—Hundreds of lengths of laces and trimmings—metal, bead and braid trimmings; Val, Venice, Irish crochet, Real Filet, Chantilly flouncings, silk nets, chiffons and embroideries.
—Every piece at a fraction of its regular price.
—Trimming Section—Second Floor.
Remnants of Coatings
—Here you will find lengths that will make coats, suits and dresses.
Remnants of Silks
—For blouses, smocks, fancy work, bags.
—Second Floor.
Table Linen Remnants
—Real Irish linens; cotton damasks—some of the very best grades of table coverings are included, and lengths measure from 1 1/2 to 3 yards. All at Remnant prices.
Dress Linen Remnants
—Also huck, art linen, handkerchief linen; lengths that will make handkerchiefs, neckwear, bags, etc. There are also slightly soiled towels—bath towels and huck towels; all at remnant prices.
—Friday—at Bullock's—Second Floor.
Floor Coverings
—Remnants of Wilton, Velvet and Chenille Carpeting.
Draperies
—Remnants of Drapery Fabrics—for cushions, for bags, for odd curtains—Sixth Floor.
Remnants of Ribbons
—There will be short lengths of Ribbons of various kinds and colors—Satin, Moire, Dresden, Taffeta and Novelities.
—Every piece is "remnant" priced for Friday.
—Ribbon Section—First Floor.

1000 Pairs Women's Fine High and Low Shoes at $4.85
—Every shoe in this assortment of 1000 pairs is a high-quality shoe and every shoe, if in its former place in regular stock, would bring far more than the price in the headline!
Roughly speaking, there are, probably, nearly 100 different styles of shoes—suede, kid, calfskin; black, tan, dark brown, combinations of colors and of materials; white; with Cuban heels; with semi-sports heels; hand-turned soles; welt soles.
Oxfords, Pumps, Ties, High Shoes
Street and general-wear shoes; dress shoes; evening slippers. Shoes with heavy, extension soles; and shoes so soft and flexible that you can double them up—"toe-to-toe" between thumb and finger!
Shoes "rounded up" from Bullock's own, regular stocks, but from stocks that have been depleted by strenuous buying. However, no matter what size you wear, you will find that size in some sort of high-value shoes Friday, Remnant Day, in this great, splendid lot. Better come early!
—Bullock's—In that New Home of Women's Fine Shoes—Fourth Floor.

Bullock Furniture Remnant-Priced
—And when Furniture takes Remnant prices the resulting values are remarkable. This Remnant Friday of November witnesses the offering of some Gift Pieces at surprising prices.
Mahogany Gate Leg Table $39.50
—In splendid brown finish; size 42x24.
Mahogany Rocker Priced $30.00
—With seat and wing back of cane; a pleasing gift.
30-lb. Mattress of Floss, $16.75
—Good foam mattress with roll edge; a remarkable value.
An Upholstered Davenport, $157.50
—Covered in either tapestry or velour; three loose, spring-filled cushions and spring arms; an exceptional value at $157.50; Arm Chair to match is priced $97.50.
Ivory Enamel Bed, $21.50
—3-piece bed—with 2-in. continuous post; either 3.3 or 4.4 size; fabric spring band edge galvanized rust-proof; bed and spring complete, $21.50.
—Useful Christmas Gifts at surprisingly low prices—Remnant Friday—Bullock's—Seventh Floor.

Bibles, Prayer Books, Rosaries—on Sale
—Roman Catholic and Protestant Bibles; Roman Catholic and Episcopal Prayer Books; and Roman Catholic Rosaries—just a few of each—will be offered, Friday, at very low prices. Every book and every rosary is perfect—the small quantity of each, alone, accounting for the repricing.
—Book Section—Second Floor.
60 Muslin Envelope Chemise at $1.00
—Fresh, clean garments; made with the built-up shoulders; round neck; comfortably fitting; some trimmed around neck, arms—yes, and lower edge with Val lace. Some have yokes in front and are trimmed with embroidery. Sizes 36 to 44.
120 Muslin Gowns at $1.50
—Slip-over style; short, kimono sleeves; round, V or square neck; trimmed with embroidery, or lace or embroidery and lace combined; shirring takes care of the fullness; ribbon threaded; well made; sizes 15, 16 and 17.
—Muslin Underwear Section—Fourth Floor.
A Special Purchase—Wool Scarfs at $3.95
—Very fine Angora yarn scarfs, some of which are very wide, others medium or narrow width; but the cause of this low price is, every Scarf has some sort of slight defect—not important enough, however, to make this low price an adequate one. Many wanted shades are included—Fourth Floor.
New Wool Scarfs at $4.95
—Medium-width scarfs; in two combinations of colors—brown-and-tan and cream-and-green. Very Christmas-y; and scarfs that will be appreciated gifts—Fourth Floor.

GIVE TROOPS TO ARIZONA.

New Scheme Places the State Under Ninth Corps.

Three Other States Help to Comprise 45th Division.

National Guard to be Closely Connected With Regulars.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
PHOENIX, Nov. 23.—Under a new scheme of organization, outlined at the late meeting in San Antonio, of the adjutant-general of the southwestern states and of the senior authorities of the Regular Army, Arizona becomes a part of the Ninth Corps, within the Third Army. New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado and Oklahoma will comprise the Forty-fifth Division.

An interesting feature of this re-adjustment is that the division probably will be known as the Naco, a combination of the first letters of the states embraced. It happens also that Naco is the name of a small town on Arizona's south border, a town at which the First Arizona Cavalry, later the One Hundred and Fifty-eighth United States Infantry, spent about a year on outpost duty prior to the breaking out of the great war.

TO LOSE SQUADRON.

Under the new order of things recommended to the General Staff at Washington, Arizona is to lose the squadron of four troops of cavalry that had been assigned her, but will keep a battalion of three batteries of artillery. Two troops of cavalry already have been organized in Phoenix and two others were in progress of organization at Tucson and Tempe.

Arizona again is to be given the One Hundred Fifty-eighth Infantry, with regimental headquarters and twelve or fifteen companies, to be recruited within the state, this, with the artillery units to succeed the National Guard known before the war, which then comprised twelve companies within the First Arizona Infantry.

Arizona is to have headquarters for a brigade of infantry of two regiments, the second of which, the One Hundred and Fifty-seventh, is to be in Colorado. Colorado is to have headquarters for a regiment of artillery, of which the first battalion will be an Arizona unit and the second recruited within its own state. New Mexico, in the tentative distribution, appears to fare rather ill, by reason of its non-acceptance of the military units offered it in the distribution following the war. It is understood that any troops within her borders probably will be from the regular establishment, unless there be subsequent readjustment.

Oklahoma is headquarters for the Second Brigade of the Forty-fifth Division and has allotment also of other arms of the service.

Under the new plans, the citizen soldiery is to have much closer connection than ever known heretofore with the Regular Army establishment. In Arizona more than a brigade of troops would be comprised by the assembly of the regular troops now at Douglas, Nogales, Fort Huachuca and Fort Apache. The infantry station at Yuma is a part of the California division.

Toilet Ware

Persons of refinement appreciate the season of fine Toilet Ware, articles which in their daily use can be enjoyed both for their beauty and for their staunchness.

Especially new and exclusive is the Flanders Pattern, a noteworthy example of the new engine-turned treatment, hand engraved over all, producing a delicate, like sheen. The shapes are novel, and the glass is especially cut, very different from the usual round models. It is, indeed, a most exquisite gift.

For anyone desiring to elaborate on the Adam decoration in the bedroom, we suggest a set of Toilet Ware in the Flanders Pattern.

Still another beautiful conception of the Silver-Smith's art, is of Sterling Silver in Louis XV pattern, and many other interesting styles are shown from which to select the Christmas gift of good taste.

For men, we offer special designs in sets, or separate pieces, such as a real masculine military hair brushes with best of hair brushes, and other accessories for the well-groomed man.

It's the Process

Many people wonder how Borden's Malted Milk has acquired such a delicate different flavor; how it contains so much that is good for bodily health and still be so smooth and soluble.

The process: The perfect blending of full-cream milk with wheat flour and barley malt. The Borden Company has given sixty-three years to perfecting milk products; Borden's Malted Milk shows the master-blend of these milk experts. Insist upon Borden's for quality Malted Milk.

DEFENDANT GOT GERMAN MONEY.

Made Trip to Germany to Get "Evening Mail" Cash.

Secretary Says He Did not Know Purpose of Trip.

Visited August Busch to Ask About Newspaper.

(BY A. P. MORTIMER) NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—S. Walter Kaufman, co-defendant with Norman H. Lindheim and Dr. Edward A. Rumely, charged with concealing alleged German ownership of the New York Evening Mail during part of the war, went to Germany in 1916 to confer with Hermann Sielcken, said to have been supplying funds to Dr. Rumely while he was editor and publisher of the newspaper, Kaufman testified today.

While in Germany with his secretary, Eugene Orvis, Kaufman said he called on Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, who was a German agent in the United States at the outbreak of the war, and American Ambassador Gerard.

The object of his trip abroad was to "speak personally with Norman H. Lindheim and Dr. Edward A. Rumely regarding his business interests in the Evening Mail," Kaufman explained Sielcken was "coffee king" when residing in Baden-Baden. Another important purpose in his trip was to bring back chemicals owned by an American firm and effect the release of goods held in Hamburg for shipment to American owners.

SEILCKEN DISAPPOINTED. Kaufman told Sielcken of the reorganization of the Evening Mail and Dr. Rumely's plans to build up the paper, adding that Sielcken said he was "disappointed with his newspaper and decried the excessive cost of its production."

Sielcken later loaned "an additional $150,000 to Dr. Rumely in the Evening Mail," Kaufman said under cross examination by the prosecution. When asked why he turned over $150,000 to Sielcken, "at a time when diplomatic relations with Germany were about to be severed," Kaufman said he did not know diplomatic relations were on the point of being broken, and put Sielcken's money into the paper in order to save the money Sielcken already had invested in it.

SAW AUGUST BUSCH. Kaufman later went to St. Louis to see August Busch about the newspaper, but not with Dr. Rumely or Dr. Heinrich Albert of the German fiscal agency here, he said.

Orvis, succeeding Kaufman on the stand, said Kaufman did not tell him the object of his trip to Germany during the seventeen days at sea after leaving the United States. He testified to going to Baden-Baden with Kaufman and a man named Arthur Schmidt. He said that, although he did not understand German very well, he heard the words "Evening Mail" mentioned in the conversation between Kaufman and Sielcken. Orvis also testified to being with Kaufman in April, 1918, when he said they met Dr. Bernhard Dernburg and he received a letter to deliver to Dr. Rumely.

ZEPPELIN SEIZURES SAVAGELY ATTACKED.

GERMAN ENGINEER CHARGES ALLEGED ACTION AS NAKED ROBBERY.

(BY CARL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.) STUTTGART (Germany) Nov. 24. If confiscation of Zeppelin airships at Lake Constance and Nordstern should be permitted by Germany, the Allies will undoubtedly claim the right to new building plans and inventions through which the Zeppelin concern has intended to promote vastly the use of airships for commercial purposes.

This statement is made in an article printed in the Schwäbische Kurier by Dr. Eckener, one of the constructing engineers employed by the Zeppelin company.

Dr. Eckener savagely attacks the action of the Allies in seizing Zeppelin machines, characterizing the taking of these vessels as naked robbery.

"The only purpose of such procedure," he adds, "is the Entente's desire to get hold of the best products of German skill and further cripple Germany economically."

PLANE SHIPMENT HELD. (BY CARL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.) BERLIN, Nov. 24.—Eleven aluminum German airplanes sold to an American concern and loaded on a ship in Hamburg have been ordered held up by the Inter-Allied Aeronautical Commission, which alleges a violation of the Versailles treaty, it is officially announced here.

German manufacturers claim the contracts for the airplanes were drawn since July 10, when in their opinion the prohibition against the manufacture and sale of airplanes under Article CCII of the Versailles Treaty expired.

STOCKHOLM NEXT MEETING PLACE: NEW MINIMUM RATE IS FIXED BY DELEGATES.

(BY CARL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.) MADRID, Nov. 24.—Stockholm was chosen today as the scene of the 1924 congress of the International Postal Union.

A hot debate occurred today when Ecuador moved that only sovereign countries should vote at meetings of the congress. The United States supported the motion, but Great Britain and France opposed it, and it was lost.

The new postal rate was fixed at a minimum of 25 cents and a maximum of 50 cents, and any country was given permission to define a rate between those figures. The gold franc was adopted as the basis for payment. It is expected the postal convention will be signed on November 30.

Amateur Sleuth Tells of Find-

Didn't Shadow Doughty;
Watched Avenues of Escape.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 24.—Leaving here today in custody of Austin P. Mitchell, chief of detectives of Toronto, Can., John Doughty, former private secretary of the missing millionaire theatrical man, Ambrose J. Small, who disappeared in December last year, was en route to the Canadian city to face charges in connection with the disappearance. Doughty's movements from the time he left Toronto in December were given out today by officers at Oregon City, where he was arrested Monday night. According to this information Doughty first went across the line to Buffalo, N. Y., where he spent a few days. Then he went to Milwaukee, Wis., where he was in a few days later for Seattle. After a brief stay in Seattle he came to Portland, where he stayed until he went to work at a paper mill in Oregon City, February 23.

RECOGNIZE PICTURE.
How Doughty was caught as a result of the activity of an amateur detective, Ed Richardson, who recognized him on the street in Portland about two weeks ago from a circular he had seen and who obtained a copy of the circular, giving it to Constable Edward Fortune of Oregon City, who made the arrest, was told today by Richardson.

Richardson, who is known in Oregon City as a man of odd jobs, admitted he was an amateur detective, and said he had once been in the employ of one of the largest detective agencies in the country.

DEEP STUFF.
"I first recognized Doughty in Portland about three weeks ago," he said. "I had seen a circular offering $15,000 reward for his arrest. I was standing on a street corner in Portland waiting for an Oregon City car. Doughty passed me and waited for the car a couple of blocks farther on. When I got on the car I again saw him and the resemblance to the circular impressed me. Since then I have been keeping watch of the avenues of escape in Oregon City, instead of watching Doughty, in order not to arouse his suspicions."

Richardson said they signed an agreement to divide the reward in case they were successful.

Before he boarded the train today, Detective Mitchell said he would recommend that the $15,000 reward offered by Mrs. Ambrose J. Small for the apprehension of Doughty should be divided between Richardson and Fortune.

More of Doughty's record, which came to light in Oregon City today, indicated that he had an exemplary life while there. On every side persons who knew him as Charles E. Cooper, a mill worker, expressed surprise at his arrest. The family where he boarded was said to be almost heart-broken.

HOUSE IMMIGRATION COMMITTEE TO FRAME BILL FOR LEGISLATION.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Enactment of legislation designed to prevent the desertion of the crews of foreign ships at American ports and the entrance into this country of persons coming as stowaways on vessels will be asked of Congress by the House Immigration Committee.

In making this statement today, Representative Johnson of Washington, chairman of the committee, said desertions had reached serious proportions and that there had been a rapid increase in the number of stowaways arriving at Atlantic and Pacific ports.

Reports have been received that increased numbers of Chinese and Japanese were attempting to enter the United States at Pacific and Gulf ports.

All members of the House Immigration Committee are expected to be in Washington by the first of next week to frame the bill which Chairman Johnson expects to introduce soon after Congress convenes December 6.

EXPERTS TO MEET IN BAY CITY; WILL INTRODUCE MANY NOVEL FEATURES.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—Radio telegraphic progress and plans for development of wireless communication will be discussed by radio men from the western half of the United States tomorrow in the first Pacific Coast radio convention to be opened here, with an address by wireless from Mayor Rolph.

All speeches by wireless telephone and guests confined to radio experts, and a wireless ball, with music furnished by wireless telephone, will be featured of entertainment for the sixty delegates.

Delegates from as far east as North Dakota and from many points of the Pacific Coast will attend. The convention will be representative of government, commercial and amateur radio interests. A wireless show, demonstrating the latest in government and commercial equipment, will be held for three days, in connection with the convention.

shipment, consisting of tractors, motor trucks and other power machinery, have just arrived at the Hacienda del Canutillo, as the big plantation is called. This consignment, represented an outlay of $125,000 gold, which came out of the national treasury. Orders for additional machinery and implements have been placed by the government at the request of Villa and will cost another $100,000, it is stated.

AMERICAN MACHINISTS.
Accompanying the first shipment of modern farm machinery to Canutillo were expert American machinists, who showed Villa and his employees just how the tractors, trucks and plows should be operated. Villa showed the keenest interest in the modern farm equipment.

ABSOLUTELY DRY.
No violations of the law or rowdiness of any kind is tolerated by Villa. He insists on the strictest observance of the prohibition rule that he has laid down. No liquor is sold or drunk upon the place. Villa plans to bring into cultivation a large part of the 200,000-acre tract. Most of the land will be placed under irrigation. The soil and climate are said to be ideally suited for the growing of a variety of crops. The former bandit chief believes in hard work on the part of the many men who are under him. At the same time he treats them well. He allows them many privileges, such as going on hunting expeditions in the neighboring mountains, occasionally indulging in outdoor sporting contests each Saturday afternoon and other

CHURCH NOT POPULAR.
In the matter of providing spiritual welfare for his old freebooting associates and their families, Villa is sadly deficient. He continues to show no reverence for religion or the church. This is evidenced in many ways, the chief one being that he has taken over the ancient Catholic church edifice of Canutillo for his headquarters offices. He has a large force of clerical help and scattered about in the church are desks and typewriters. Villa has adopted a farm cost system which was put in by the representatives of an enterprising American concern. It involves a large amount of book-keeping and typewriting and it is in keeping up this record that many of the clerks are employed.

American Landholders in Mexico Protest.

Confidential Agent Made Graft Charge.

Says Millions of Acres Acquired by Concessions.

(BY A. P. NICHOLS WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Representatives of American landholders and interests in Mexico have protested to the State Department against what they characterize as misleading statements made by R. V. Pesqueira, confidential agent of the Mexican government, in an address here last Friday before the American Petroleum Institute.

Pesqueira's statement which had drawn a protest from landholders referred to methods which he said had been used by some Americans in acquiring land in Mexico, but did not refer specifically to any oil interests.

The Mexican agent was discussing Article XXVII of the new Mexican constitution, which, he said, did not deal solely with oil, which probably was the smallest issue in it.

"Article XXVII," Pesqueira said, "is a tremendous aspiration of the Mexican people. There are embodied in Article XXVII all their hopes for betterment, for happiness and for progress."

"A few facts will tell you the story. There was a time in Mexico when concessions were very popular. It was not a flattery to my government; it was a shame; but some of you wealthy gentlemen went to Mexico very easy and very nice, and found unscrupulous employees armed by some grafter, under the ministers or somebody else with authority to grant concessions of land, involving thousands and millions of acres of land; and the method and the process of acquiring that land will stand as a shame for both parties for Mexico and the men who took those concessions."

LANDS PURCHASED.

H. A. Sibbett, vice-president of the Tequil Delta Land and Water

Company, in a telegram to Secretary Cobby, protests against such a statement, declaring that "our lands" were all acquired by purchase. Sibbett also said that Article XXVII provided "for the divesting of American companies of their legally acquired lands without appreciable compensation and laws already on the statute books of certain Mexican States provide for such spoliation of investment."

Frank E. Kellogg, speaking, he said, on behalf of the American Petroleum companies engaged in the production of petroleum in Mexico, told the Secretary of State in his letter that statements made by Pesqueira before the Petroleum Institute "constitute in substance a justification of the so-called policy of nationalization of petroleum properties in Mexico and were inconsistent with any idea of the recognition of the rights of American petroleum companies in that country, as to which many protests have already been filed by your department."

Lumbermen Purchase Hospital.

(BY A. P. NICHOLS WIRE.)

ABERDEEN (Wash.) Nov. 24.—The Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen, an organization of workers in the timber industry, has extended its scope here by purchasing the Aberdeen General Hospital for $40,000. The hospital will be enlarged and refitted to provide facilities for lumbering employees in this section.

Solid Sore From Head to Foot With Eczema

Once a solid sore, very completely with that's what Dr. J. B. D.D.D. says about his boy. He writes:

"The boy that we have been dealing with D.D.D. is completely well. He was a solid sore all over his head and body, and now he is completely well."

Why not try D.D.D. today and be completely well? Dr. J. B. D.D.D. is the only one who can cure you of your solid sore. Your doctor, your pharmacist, your neighbor, no one else can cure you of your solid sore. Try D.D.D. today and be completely well.

TIME TO CALL JAPS' BLUFF, SAYS CAREY.

WYOMING EXECUTIVE ANSWERS PHELAN'S THREATS PROTEST TELEGRAM.

(BY A. P. NICHOLS WIRE.)

CHEYENNE (Wyo.) Nov. 24.—Gov. Carey of Wyoming today declared in a telegram to Senator Phelan of California, that it is time for United States and other nations to call Japan's bluff.

Gov. Carey's message was in answer to one from Senator Phelan asking western governors and senators to protest against what he said to be a proposed new treaty between Japan and the United States. Gov. Carey's message followed:

"We have to a certain extent complied with her demands, but the time has come for not only United States, but other nations to call Japan's bluff. For United States to enter into any such treaty as proposed simply means that we are backing down, as we did when Japan was permitted to seize Korea and take over Shantung peninsula. Were United States the only country that in excluding Japan it would be a different matter and Japan might have cause for complaint. But until other countries permit unrestricted Japanese immigration, Japan has no right to make demands on this government."

PRESIDENTIAL THREAT FRIGHTENED STRIKERS.

(BY A. P. NICHOLS WIRE.)

BELLEVILLE (Ill.) Nov. 24.—The coal miners' strike last fall was called off because Joseph Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, informed officials of the miners' union that the organization would be excluded from the use of the mails and telegraph facilities, if the strike continued. John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, asserted in an address here last night.

CAN YOU AFFORD A FIRE?

A "Safe First" Story

Roades had made good headway and was accredited with something more than the average business acumen. He was cautious, moreover, and—as he thought—had fully protected the business with ample fire insurance.

But like many careful business men, he had overlooked the most important thing of all. No insurance written could ever make up for the loss of certain of his business records and data. Many of them were absolutely irreplaceable.

And yet, down in the wooden filing case of H. B. Roades & Company, there lay exposed the vital records of their hard earned development, the most important documents the firm possessed.

One night Roades received this message over the wire from his partner:

"The offices are on fire. Hurry!"

Of course he was too late, then. The documents were destroyed.

The past two years have gone hard with Roades. In addition to costly and extended litigation, he has had to bear the expense of gathering an entirely new set of records—all because his office lacked a good steel safe.

Finally established in another office he approached H. S. Crocker Company to make sure that his records would given every protection in the future. Now, he wanted a good "catapult proof" safe.

The burglar and fire-proof specifications of the Art Metal Lightweight Label Underwriters' Label guaranteed combined with Roades' own personal experience obviated the need of any man's persuasion. All that was required of us was to point out the particular and type best suited to his particular business.

Roades protected his business and had let himself be cleaned out—by you, he could have forestalled all this.

You cannot afford a fire. A relatively small investment will bring you a first. Why not consult Crocker by phone or call?

Clutch New and Old

When we say the New Mitchell is a BETTER model, we have reason. For instance:

Do you know that the New Mitchell uses a Borg & Beck clutch?

—And that the old Mitchell used the Cone Clutch?

This gain in flexibility made possible by our improved method is comparable to the efficiency usually obtained in higher priced cars.

GOVERNOR BRADFORD PROCLAIMED THE FIRST THANKSGIVING DAY
Our Nation today, the highest form of government the world knows, is based upon the ideals and aspirations of those brave pioneers.
The contrast between those homes built on the barren and wind-swept shores of New England and the comfortable, beautiful homes of today is great.
During the eighteen years of our business history we have steadily observed the increased appreciation of beauty and art in the home.
The American Home of today is a glorified home—a living expression of the ideals of the Pilgrim Fathers.

MAY RELIEVE GROVES OF DUTY AS BOURBON CHIEF
Intimated That Democratic Secretary Charged With Bootlegging May Ask It Pending Trial.
F. Ray Groves, who with his two brothers and a fourth man was arrested yesterday on Federal grand jury indictments charging them with being leaders of a conspiracy to violate the Federal prohibition laws, may be temporarily relieved of his office as secretary of the Democratic State Central Committee pending the outcome of his trial.
Democratic politicians stated they are unfamiliar with the charges contained in the indictment, but that, unless Mr. Groves should actually be convicted, no permanent change in the personnel of the State Central Committee will be made. It was intimated, however, that Mr. Groves may voluntarily ask to be relieved of his duties until the close of the trial.
Mr. Randolph W. Hill, chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee, said that any change in the State Central Committee would be made by the officers of the State organization.
THE CHARGES.
The blanket indictment, charging F. Ray Groves, Edward C. Groves, Ralph Groves and Joe Goldberg with obtaining approximately $11,000 in the alleged conspiracy, mentions twenty overt acts in the alleged violation of the Volstead Act.
Ralph Groves was formerly prohibition enforcement officer in this city under the late Lorin A. Handley. He was later removed from office. F. Ray Groves was a partner with Joseph C. Groves & Groves, with offices in the Citizens' National Bank Building.
Joe Goldberg is connected with the Maple Supply Company, which, according to the indictment, was organized for the sole purpose of dealing in wine under the prohibition law "for religious purposes."
Though the names of all three of the Groves brothers have been mentioned throughout the Federal investigation into the activities of the alleged liquor ring, it is understood that the evidence linking F. Ray Groves with the alleged conspiracy was not secured until the final session of the grand jury last Tuesday.
When the four defendants appeared at the office of Commissioner Long yesterday morning to give their bonds, they were accompanied by their attorneys, Paul Schenck, Frank J. Dominguez and Richard Kitzler. The bond in each case was fixed at $3,000. The bondsmen were Hamilton H. Cotton, Leland G. Offer, K. E. Zuberbar, Alexander Mitchell, Harry V. Tichauer and Benjamin F. Groves, registrar of the local Land Office and father of the three indicted brothers. The indicted men will be arraigned in the Federal court Monday morning.

Los Angeles Pacific Navigation Company to Raise Big Sum to Buy Vessels.
Taking capitalists of all Southern California counties into the organization, the Los Angeles Pacific Navigation Company will inaugurate a campaign immediately to raise from $1,000,000 to $15,000,000 with which to secure a fleet of merchant vessels with which to operate its business between here and the Orient.
At a meeting of its fifty directors in the California Club last night the company decided to continue operating such vessels as have been allocated to it by the United States Shipping Board, but to proceed with the creation of a fund sufficiently large to finance such boat purchases as it may be able to make outside the Shipping Board.
The company is said to have two excellent freighters in prospect now at reasonable prices. It will not undertake to purchase boats from the Shipping Board unless they are offered at better prices than have been quoted in the past, according to Maria De Brabant, vice-president of the company.
The company will continue to subscribe to stock in the company, each county being asked to conduct a drive to raise a pro rata and make the concern a Southern California enterprise.
GIRL SAYS MAN URGED FORGERIES.
Admits Taking Money from Oakland Judge's Account; on Parole from Ventura.
Having fallen and battled her way back to her girlhood life, Norma Gardiner, 20-year-old girl from Oakland, when she was arrested on a charge of forgery, admitted taking money from the account of Judge Victor A. Dunn of Oakland, and gave it to the man, Ernest Booth, who is said by the police to have a criminal record. Booth, according to the girl's statement, persuaded her to take the money.
She worked in Judge Dunn's office, she said, and each day was accustomed to make deposits for him. At the command of Booth, she says, after receiving instructions from him, she made the bank deposits each day, until she had $800. This money, she said, was taken by Booth and the only part of it given her was her share of $100.
After waiting two weeks, she was in the act of purchasing a ticket to Oakland when she was arrested on the charge of violating her parole, having been released from the Ventura School some months ago.
Judge Dunn has never notified the police of his loss and the girl hopes he does not intend to prosecute her.
The officials at Oakland were on the night of Miss Gardiner's arrest.

THROUGHS AT REGIMENT'S FIRST BALL.
Governor, Adjutant-General and Many Other Prominent People Are Guests.
More than 2700 people participated in the festivities at the first annual dance of the Los Angeles Infantry Regiment, held in the armory last night. Among the distinguished guests were Gov. Stephens and Brig.-Gen. J. J. Borree, Adjutant-General for the State of California.
The building was attractively decorated throughout, and the dance hall and the gymnasium, also used for dancing, were packed with merry-makers. A handsome flag, made entirely of flowers, donated by the Broadway Florists, was the center of attraction.
Regimental bands played in both dance halls. Refreshments were served, buffet fashion, to all in attendance.
The affair marked the formal completion of the regiment.
The advisory committee of the Los Angeles Infantry Regiment Association, which arranged the dance, includes: Lieut.-Col. J. S. McKnight, president; Maj. E. E. Kirk, vice-president; Capt. J. C. Thompson, secretary; Capt. W. P. Story, treasurer; Col. Arthur Williams, U.S.A.; Maj. A. E. Easton; Maj. Frank Hutton, Lieut.-Col. A. J. Copp, Jr.; Acting Maj. Henry Woodard; and Capt. H. B. Hayden.
R. B. Carter, G. W. McClure, A. C. Jewell, M. C. Boehme, G. R. Gilley, and V. A. Jones.
Company L, Capt. J. C. Dooley commanding, served in the capacity of host to the regiment.
Scores of prominent men and women attended the reception, and took part in the dance.

HAIR CHANGED SINCE KILLING?
Murder Witness Says Mrs. Roe Was Red-Headed.
Locks Are Now Gray With a Trace of Black.
State Rests With Story of Mrs. Graydon's Sister.
Vividly depicting the events that led up to the slaying of McCullough G. Graydon at Venice, on September 1, Miss Joan Marsh, sister of Mrs. Graydon, the widow, ended her testimony and took spectators and jury by surprise yesterday in Judge Willis's court by stating positively that Mrs. Maybelle Roe, on trial for the shooting, had red hair on the day of the shooting.
The jurors, court and spectators turned and looked at the defendant, who sat unmoved before their scrutiny, while they gazed at her hair, which in the courtroom was gray with a trace of black. This testimony came as a surprise, while Miss Marshall was undergoing a severe cross-examination by Judge Willis of defense counsel. The witness stuck to her claim that defendant's hair was red on the day of the shooting. It was intimated that should this statement be attacked by the defense, rebuttal testimony will be brought in to substantiate Miss Marshall's statement.
STATE RESTS.
Miss Marshall, who was one of the strongest witnesses for the prosecution and the third eyewitness to testify that Mrs. Roe fired the shot that killed Graydon, added many details to the testimony of her sister, Mrs. Graydon, and C. L. Atkins, chauffeur, both of whom asserted Mrs. Roe did the shooting. When the witness finished her testimony, Dep. Dist. Atty. Von Cott rested the case of the prosecution and the case was continued until tomorrow.
Miss Marshall had told of nearly every detail of the dispute over the possession of the Venice bungalow. She stated that Mrs. Roe was the first to strike a blow, saying that the defendant struck Graydon on the forehead and that she had something in her hand at the time. Graydon, said the witness, fell to his knees. Then, she said, Mrs. Roe shot him through the back.
"At that time Mrs. Roe wore a dark brown sailor hat and had red hair," said the witness. "It seemed to me that she was much younger than she is now. I saw her later with gray hair."
"Was that her own hair?" asked Mr. Marshall.
"Whether the red hair or the gray hair was false, I am not sure," responded the witness, to suppressed laughter in the courtroom.
HER STORY.
Miss Marshall said that Graydon, Mrs. Graydon and herself, accompanied by Atkins, went to the house with Deputy Sheriff Conley. They stayed there for some time and Mrs. Doane came and soon after they left.

The People and Their Troubles

Film Director and Wife Lead Happy Married Life.

BY JANE DIXON.

Community of interest can and does exist in married life. Not alone in the home do husband and wife find mutual occupation, but in the outside world of work as well.

Two natures of harmonious beat are not limited by the family door-step. They are attuned to every sympathy of life, whether the theme be domesticity, business, art or the pursuit of pleasure.

One might comb the world and find no more convincing rebuttal of the argument that man and wife in the same business or profession cannot agree than Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ince.

Mr. Ince is a director of moving pictures. He is one of the most efficient and artistic directors who have contributed to the uplift of the silver screen. He has made art a business and business an art. He suffers no crass and endearing attacks of temperament because he is both clever and adequate and so needs no camouflage to conceal his deficiencies. Briefly, Ralph Ince is an artist and a human being, a combination as commendable as it is rare.

Mrs. Ralph Ince is a star of the silent drama, which is a way of saying she is a moving-picture actress. She is blonde and lovely and talented. Her technique has been acquired under the tutelage of her husband, who is her most ardent admirer, as well as her most difficult critic. You know her as Lucille Lee Stewart, of the Dresden china figure and dainty ways.

The next result of the combined work of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ince is a home at Brightwaters, L. I., a show place of the South Shore, as comfortable as it is attractive. In and about that home is everything to make life pleasant in the living. The hospitality of it is a grace beautiful to behold and more beautiful still to experience.

The sympathetic chord throbbing through the atmosphere of this home is made up of the notes of mutual admiration, respect, confidence, co-operation and that keynote of all domestic harmony, deep affection.

Mr. and Mrs. Ince admit their happiness. They tell briefly, how in their opinion they have managed to pull together in work and in matrimony, and to have made a success of both.

LUCILLE LEE STEWART.

(Mrs. Ralph Ince.)

Absolute faith is the secret of harmony in business and in the home.

Of course, there are morally oblique persons who will take advantage of faith, but I am concerned only with couples who are honestly trying to co-ordinate business and matrimony to the end that they may achieve success and happiness.

Petty jealousies, either private or professional, will ruin any marital combination. I am never jealous of my husband, and he returns the compliment. He is as broad minded as his faith is deep.

As an example of the tests to which his breadth of mind is put in pictures I can cite a recent example. I was playing a part opposite Eugene O'Brien in a picture called "The Perfect Lover." Mr. Ince was directing the production. The story called for a scene in which I made love to Mr. O'Brien. I did not come up to Mr. Ince's idea of the scene.

"Warm up, Lucille," he called to me. "Remember, you love this man. Put your arms around his neck. Forget I am out here and love him."

Afterward, as I was going to my dressing-room, a woman who had been watching me from the side lines stopped me and remarked that the incident was rather unique. It had not struck me that way at all. You see I know my husband. He was striving to make a convincing picture. His success was his success. It was up to me to contribute my bit.

It is my belief that a couple who cannot get on harmoniously in business cannot agree in the home. Squabbles are not confined to any one walk of life. The wife who irritates or antagonizes her husband in work will obtain the same results over the dinner table. Discard is not a matter of place, but of personality.

As a matter of fact, I work more smoothly with my husband than many of the other players under his direction. Why not? I understand him better. We have been together so much our minds run in the same direction. I can catch his idea quicker than a stranger.

Man and wife married in the truest sense of the word come to be an integral part of each other. As such they should constitute a perfect human machine, spinning along merrily toward the accomplishment of a single ambition—happiness.

If, tomorrow, destiny should remove me from the scene of earthly action Mrs. Ince would be able to feel secure in the thought his wife's future is in the balance.

Inheritance or accumulation of a considerable fortune offers no such security, for money is so evanescent a quantity that the possession of it is little more than a promise.

Even before the present era of feminism I was a whole believer in women being trained to care for themselves if necessary. Economic independence is a shining jewel in a woman's crown of glory.

The husband who makes his wife a partner in his business has a paid up insurance policy on the success of that business.

Why should the husband offer a limited partnership in marriage? Why cannot the wife be a helpmate in the fullest sense of the word? And if she is entitled to work outside her home to be economically independent, how much better that she work with her husband rather than apart from him.

The cry that wives in work neglect their homes is only true of individuals. These individuals would be guilty of the same neglect had they nothing more to do than to keep house. Home making is a gift—as instinct. One girl who stands ten hours behind the counter for a pittance has a cozy little hall bedroom, attractive, with cheap creosote and feminine brio-a-brac. Another girl who seeks pleasure with a handsome allowance has a suite as bare and cheerless as a deserted barn.

I have never had a clear sense of money values. Realizing this, I began by appointing Mrs. Ince the family banker. She has attended to every detail of our finances. The financial world lost an expert banker when Mrs. Ince entered pictures.

There are two times when I am pardably proud of Ince, Inc. One time is when Lucille Lee Stewart does a finished bit of acting for me and the other is when Mrs. Ralph Ince presides at the far end of our dinner table, tempting with the things she knows so well how to cook and serve.

I can imagine no more ideal situation than one in which husband and wife eyes fixed on the same goal, go hand in hand along life's highway toward accomplishment.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Europe's Economic Flight.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—(To the Editor of The Times:—) The fact that the United States faces the winter with an oversupply of foodstuffs, valued by the government experts at $2,000,000,000, suggests that the inability to cash in this large surplus by selling to Europe is in part responsible for the present United States economic plight. If this country cannot sell its surplus, prices will fall, wages will be cut, industry will slacken and men in thousands will be thrown out of employment.

Is it not then highly essential that the United States, as owner and would-be seller of this vast oversupply of food, stuffs, and possibly other things, should take some practical steps whereby Europe may purchase for her needs and the seller be safeguarded, instead of selling the awful things that are likely to happen or calling on our people to put up $23,000,000 to feed Europe's children, why not try to work out a plan whereby Europe can receive raw materials and food and pay for same largely by manufactures that we need and are willing to buy and partly by some approved form of deferred credit such as short term (ten-year) bonds of responsible governments.

For example: England wants wheat, cotton, steel, petroleum and other things. Instead of asking her to pay in cash for each purchase, arrange to accept 50 per cent in cash (exchange) and 50 per cent in ten-year government bonds.

Europe is not asking the United States to loan her money to pay debt that has already been financed, or is being carried by her own people. What Europe does need and must have, if she is to recover her economic position, is some form of credit for a portion at least of new purchases. What more direct and logical than to ask the credit of those who enjoy her trade and presumably make a profit of it? The 20 per cent deferred credit to be represented by bonds, as above, would represent the average profit to seller, so that in granting it to the seller in the United States, is only taking a risk on something he does not at present enjoy. He would get cash (exchange) for the whole cost value of his goods and give credit for the profit only.

The channel employed would be the regular line of merchants on both sides now in the export business—people who are known to each other and can be trusted—not new people or strangers.

The banker in the United States would relieve the exporting merchant of the bonds he accepts for his 20 per cent, as they can do under the Edge law, and it will only require government advice to allow the reserve banks to loan the ordinary banks against these securities (at present the reserve banks can only loan against commercial paper and bills of exchange representing actual commercial transactions). The above plan is now being followed by a Cleveland company, selling metal goods to a customer in England and has been in force about a year. The customer pays each invoice when due as to 50 per cent in cash (exchange) and as to 50 per cent in 5 per cent five-year British government bonds, taken at the exchange rate of the day the invoice is due. About $20,000 of these bonds have been placed and the arrangement is continuous. The company taking part payment in bonds, as above must, however, in due course realize on these and here is where the banker comes in—he in turn should be able to sell them to his customers who would in turn enjoy the advance in the exchange rate, meanwhile getting the interest. The result of the above arrangement if applied to export trade, generally, would be to revive exports at once, advance exchange by relieving it of one-fifth of the "dead load" carried at present; enable European firms to begin manufacturing on a larger scale and thereby creating increased credit for more purchases and employ more labor all around.

It only remains for some group of export merchants, combined with some group of bankers, to inaugurate the plan for it to have instant success.

I have not dwelt on the solidity of the government bonds would be accepted in carrying out this plan. Some are more than others—notably England, Belgium, France and the Scandinavian countries. The others would need special safeguards but it only means the "will" to find a "way," plan, in all its details, has worked out, but above is sufficient to show that by risking his money, only the United States can restore export trade; help export employer workers and feed starving children, if he cares to do so.

We Send Free the Pepsodent needed to make this ten-day test

- Multiplies the salivary flow—Nature's tooth protector
- Multiplies the starch digester in the saliva
- Multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva
- Fights film in two efficient ways
- Polishes so teeth gleam and film cannot easily adhere

Watch these five effects Repeated with every application

Dental science has found ways to bring these five desired effects whenever you brush teeth.

Leading dentists everywhere advise this method now. Millions of people already employ it. Ask us to send it free to you, and see what it does in ten days. It will be a revelation.

So Dental science has for years sought ways to fight that film. Efficient ways have now been found and proved by convincing tests. Authorities approve and advise them. And the teeth of millions are already being protected by them.

The methods are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. And a 10-Day Tube is offered free so all may quickly know it.

To combat the film

The purpose is to combat film on teeth. Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. Old methods of teeth cleaning did not end it. So month after month, on countless teeth, it may do ceaseless damage.

Most tooth troubles are now traced to film. And those troubles, despite the tooth brush, have been constantly increasing. So film-removal is nowadays considered all-important.

It dims and destroys

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Millions of white teeth

Millions now use Pepsodent. The gleaming teeth seen everywhere show one thing that it means.

To children it is most important, for young teeth are most subject to decay. Men who smoke and stain the film will see conspicuous effects. Women's teeth will be made to look their best.

Quick, visible results

The benefits of Pepsodent are rapid and apparent. You see and feel them every time you use it. Within ten days you'll realize well how much this way means.

One ingredient is pepsin, which multiplies the starch digester in the saliva, to digest starch completely. The alkalinity of the saliva is multiplied also, to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

Two factors directly attack the film. One of them keeps teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere.

The film itself is twice a day combated in most effective ways.

Everyone should know

Everybody, young and old, should know of these effects. Old methods of teeth cleaning do not bring them.

Send the coupon for the 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film disappears. Watch all the results, and the book we send will tell the meaning of them.

Do this for your sake and the sake of your children. It means whiter, cleaner, safer teeth. It means results you cannot get with any other toothbrush.

Cut out the coupon now. This is important to forget.

ity of the government when bonds would be accepted in carrying out this plan. Some are better than others—notably England, Belgium, France and the Scandinavian countries. The others would require special safeguards but it only takes the "will" to find a "way." The plan, in all its details, has been worked out, but above is sufficient to show that by raising his people only, the United States exports are restored, export trade, help exchange, employ workmen and feed starving children, if he cares to do so.

Yours truly,

The Spirit of Thanksgiving

Each year we Americans, following the custom of our Pilgrim fathers, set apart a day to be devoted to the offering of thanks for benefits and mercies of the past year.

But we should not confine the spirit which prompts this day of thanksgiving to the one occasion. Why not continue our expressions of friendly greeting and appreciation throughout the year?

The Simple Way

THE easy, practical way to polish and preserve finished surfaces is with Johnson's Prepared Wax. It polishes perfectly over any finish—lacquer, shellac or oil. Johnson's Prepared Wax forms a thin, protecting film over the surface, similar to the service rendered by a piece of plate glass over a desk, table or dresser top.

JOHNSON'S PREPARED WAX
Paste—Liquid—Powdered

Johnson's Prepared Wax is the ideal polish for floors of all kinds. It does not show scratches or heel-marks, and floors polished with it can easily be kept in perfect condition.

Johnson's Prepared Wax comes in three convenient forms—a form for floors and a form for furniture.

Johnson's Paste Wax—for polishing floors of all kinds—wood, linoleum, tile, marble, etc.
Johnson's Liquid Wax—for polishing furniture, pianos, wood-work, leather goods and automobiles.
Johnson's Powdered Wax—immediately puts any floor in perfect condition for dancing.

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

For Congressman Hicks.
Congressman Frederick C. Hicks, who is here from Washington with the joint Congressional committee on rivers and harbors, was the guest of honor last evening at a Thanksgiving dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Dean Mason for a distinguished company of twenty-six. Among the guests were Admirals Rodman, Park, Coonts and Capps and their wives.

The holiday motif featured the appointments with dahlias and chrysanthemums in gold and bronze shades centering the board. Congressman Hicks is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Mason and during the war she and Mr. Mason made their home with him and his young daughter in Washington. The Congressional committee members were entertained at dinner at the California Club Tuesday evening. A theater party at the Orpheum followed.

For Mr. Coleman.
Robert Coleman of San Francisco is a visitor who is being much feted by a host of Los Angeles friends. On Sunday evening he will be the honor guest at a dinner at which Mrs. Mary Wilcox Longstreet is to be hostess, he being a close friend of Alfred Wilcox. On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith are to have a group of ten at dinner in his honor and last evening he entertained a small company himself at the Maison Marcelle.

By Mrs. Thom.
The luncheon at which Mrs. Cameron Erekine Thom is to entertain on Tuesday, November 23, is to be given at the California Club.

To Welcome a Bride.

In honor of Mrs. Frank Forrester Chase, a bride of last June, her mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles Wheeler Chase, and aunt, Mrs. Frank Lunnaca Forrester and Miss Forrester, are issuing four hundred invitations for a reception for the afternoon of December 15, at the Wilshire Country Club. It will be the first important affair to be given there, as the club is not yet finished. A large number of matrons and girls and younger married women are to be asked to assist. The bride before her marriage in San Francisco was Miss Eleanor Warner of Memphis, Tenn.

Charity Ball.

Members of the Child Welfare League and the Junior Auxiliary met yesterday and set the evening of January 19 as the date for a charity ball and supper dance at the Hotel Ambassador, which will be the first large affair there following the opening January 12. Mrs. Mary Wilcox Longstreet is chairman of the ball committee and Miss Caroline Winston is president of the Junior Auxiliary. They are now arranging for a large number of patronesses.

At Luncheon.

Mrs. Wesley Clark is to be hostess at a luncheon on Monday, next, at the Hotel Darby.

Here from New York.

Interesting additions to Los Angeles society are Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes and their daughter, Miss Avis Hughes of Bedford Hills, N. Y., who have taken a bungalow at the Beverly Hills Hotel for the winter. Miss Hughes is a last year's debutante and was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Nancy Lane, daughter of former Secretary of the Interior Lane, to Philip Kaufman of Washington, D. C.

To Compliment Two.

Mrs. John Percival Jones and Mrs. Henry Norman Jensen shared honors yesterday at a luncheon presided over by Mrs. Edwin T. Earl yesterday at the California Club.

Thanksgiving Dinner.

As a Thanksgiving hospitality, a dinner for fourteen guests is being presided over today by Mrs. Erasmus Wilson at her home in Chester Place.

Mrs. Barnard.

Mrs. W. K. Barnard is to be hostess at a Thanksgiving dinner party today at her country home in Alhambra for a company of thirty, among whom are to be her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Clark, and Miss Lucy Mason Clark.

ON MAIL FRAUD CHARGE.

One of Three Brothers Wanted in Dallas is Arraigned Here.

Frank P. Wells of Long Beach was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Long yesterday and held in a bond of $3000 to appear in Dallas, Tex., to answer an indictment charging him and his three brothers with using the mails in a scheme to defraud. His hearing on the removal proceedings was set for December 24.

A telegram from the District Attorney of Dallas states that J. E. O. P., Charles L. and Frank P. Wells are wanted there on a post-office fraud case, involving the promotion of an oil land scheme.

Wells denies all charges of fraud, and says that instead of being a fugitive from justice, as was reported, he has lived in Long Beach five months and has purchased a home there.

KEPT MUM ON CHILDREN

Husband Said Nothing: Surprised Stepmother Asks Annulment.

After Teresa J. Wursinger married George W. Wursinger he told her a former wife was sending their four children to Los Angeles. Up to that time she did not know of the children or that the woman had been his common-law wife, she declared.

Declaring that suppression of information about the four children was fraud, she asked for an annulment of the marriage in Judge Crail's court yesterday.

The court stated that the children would not affect Mr. Wursinger's marital relations with the plaintiff. Her attorney contended it was such a palpable fraud on the part of Mr. Wursinger as to make it grounds for an annulment. The court allowed the attorney to present authorities in the matter.

Women of Middle Age

Owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change in her life without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms. Those dreadful hot flashes, smothering spells, fainting spells, nervous troubles and irregularities are symptoms that should have prompt attention. These two letters prove what a successful remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is for women at this time of life.

These Two Women Helped During Change of Life.

Taunton, Mass.—"I could not eat or sleep for six months had fainting spells and could not walk without help for three months, caused by female trouble. My cousin, who was a doctor, told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me greatly. Then during the Change of Life I used the same remedy. I am seventy years old now and am able to do my own housework and walk one mile to church every Sunday morning and evening. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends having the same troubles as I had. Your remedy is the best on earth. I cannot find words to express my gratitude for it."—Mrs. Susan C. Staples, 167 B School St., Taunton, Mass.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I want to let you know what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I had organic troubles and am going through the Change of Life. I was taken with a pain in my side and a bad headache. I could not lie down, could not eat or sleep. I suffered something terrible and the doctor's medicine did me no good at all—my pains got worse instead of better. I began taking the Vegetable Compound and felt a change from the first. Now I feel fine and advise any one going through the Change of Life to try it, for it cured me after I had given up all hopes of getting better. I will tell any one who writes to me the good it has done me."—Mrs. Margaret Danz, 743 N. 28th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

APPEAL JUDGES FLAY RADICALS

Refuse Criminal Syndicalist Rehearing of Case.

Brand I.W.W. as Men Trying to Wreck Government.

Pamphlets Foster Class Hate; Songs Blasphemous.

The District Court of Appeal in a decision denying the motion for a new trial of Nicholas Steilk, recently convicted of criminal syndicalism, hurled a condemning broadside into the ranks of the I.W.W. yesterday. Steilk was sentenced in April to serve from one to fourteen years. He appealed to the higher courts for a new trial, declaring there were seventeen specifications of error for a reversal of the judgment.

Denying the motion for a new trial and affirming the judgment, the District Court of Appeal ruled that nowhere in the records of the trial was there any evidence of a miscarriage of justice. Steilk's attorneys based their motion for a new trial on asserted errors of the trial judge in the conduct of the case, misconduct of the jury and upon a declaration that the syndicalism act is unconstitutional.

One section of the lengthy decision, consisting of eighteen typewritten pages, refers to the I.W.W. as "an organization tending toward undermining the integrity of the home and bent upon the overthrow of the government itself."

PRINTED PROPAGANDA BAD.

"The organizations' printed matter is all damaging," declared the authors of the decision. "It long permitted to remain in circulation and read by considerable numbers of our people it cannot but assist in bringing about social unrest and discontent and tend toward the disintegration of that is good."

One I.W.W. pamphlet was analyzed as teaching class hatred and advocating "the Hunnish doctrine that might makes right." Another was referred to as teaching against a fair day's work for a fair day's pay. The I.W.W. songs were branded as blasphemous.

Another pamphlet was condemned as advocating the use and practice of "direct action," sabotage, passive resistance and intermittent and ritualistic strikes. Referring to the revolutionary literature, the following opinion was given:

"All of this constitutes coercion. It is un-American, by whomsoever promulgated, and courts should never hesitate in upholding any and every legal attempt to suppress such selfish, unholy and inhuman practices."

Referring to the conspiracy of the I.W.W. and to Steilk as a conspirator, the Court of Appeals justices made the following statement in their decision:

"The speeches made, the law-defying, morals-destroying and crime-producing publications, advocating such malicious doctrines as free love, the overthrow of the government, disregard for law and constituted authority, class hatred, that the methods of the ballot are the methods of the mob, sabotage, direct action, strikes, the refusal by railroad men to transport soldiers in time of war, the breeding of suspicion toward all departments of the government, rapine, murder and treason—all were in furtherance of the common design."

"These tenets, promulgated and vouched for by the I.W.W. organization, are so inflammatory and revolutionary, subtle and insidious as to constitute a formidable menace to the social, political and industrial well-being of our country. Being the acts and declarations of some of the conspirators, they were the acts and declarations of all of them."

Judges Finlayson, Waller and Thomas concurred in denying Steilk's motion for a new trial.

Ample Space in Hotels to Give Tourists Rooms.

Hotel accommodations in this city are ample to take care of the tourist travel, declares a statement issued yesterday by the Southern California Hotel Men's Association, and there is practically no danger that the shortage which existed last year will be repeated.

The hotel men take exception to a report that tourists were to be housed in tents. The statement says that the shortage reported is confined solely to dwellings, and that there is no danger of easterners being forced to take to tents if they want rooms at a hotel.

At present there is no congestion in this section and more space is available than at this time last year.

FLASHES.

ELsie FERGUSON SOON.

WILL LEAVE NEW YORK TUESDAY FOR WEST.

By Grace Kingsley.

If you call the motion-picture roll call two weeks hence, there will answer to her name no less important a personage than Miss Ferguson. Miss Ferguson is about the only star who so far hasn't honored us with her presence, and upon her arrival we shall feel as did small Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm, that "the family is now finished." She will leave New York for Hollywood Tuesday next.

Miss Ferguson is a Famous Play-Lucky star, who has recently returned from a trip to the Orient, and who might, therefore, be expected to bring renewed interest to her work, but that the recent death of a near relative is said to have greatly depressed her. However, her family hope that the change to California will have a restoring influence.

A number of pictures are to be made by Miss Ferguson, while she is here. She will engage a house, in order that she may have entire comfort while here; as for quiet, of course, Hollywood will insure that.

Her first picture is to be directed by that king-pin director, William D. Taylor. It will be a film version of Arnold Bennett's play, "Sacred and Profane Love," in a stage production of which Miss Ferguson appeared last year in New York. Julia Crawford Ivers wrote the scenario. Conrad Nagel is to play the leading role opposite Miss Ferguson, in case he finishes in time with Goldwyn.

Mary Pickford Comes Home.

Returning from her trip to the Grand Canyon with her husband Douglas Fairbanks, just brimfull of her old-time pep, Mary Pickford is to resume work at the Bruntun Studios today on a new picture, with David Kirkland directing. Frances Marion is going back to New York for a short rest.

Hollywood Collar Club Says—A certain comedian is going to Europe, and especially to Paris, they say, to console a broken heart. Anything for an excuse!

West speaking of traveling, why waste Cuba on Magda Lane? Oh, yes, and Ernest Ward has gone to New York.

Coming and Going Notes.
Bert Lytell, Metro star, is expected to return here from New York in the course of a few weeks. The actor has been making pictures in the East during the past few months.

Benita Barricada has taken a trip to New York to visit her sister there. Dorothy Dalton is shortly to come West once more.

A. J. Callaghan is expected back from New York in time to view the automobile races today.

Lila Lee packed her grip and went to Gotham early this week in order to pursue that pleasing rhyming duo of shows and claret.

Josephine Quirk, Lasky scenario writer, arrived in town yesterday.

Jack Bruntun, brother of Robert Bruntun, has just come from Australia to visit the picture producer.

Jack Pickford, Nurend.
Looking in fine condition, Jack Pickford has just returned from a hunting trip up at Big Bear with Al Roscoe and Mrs. Lasky. The trio proudly report having brought back their own Thanksgiving dinner and that of their friends in the form of sixty ducks bagged.

Louise Fazenda Flies.
Louise Fazenda has gone home to Lafayette, Ind. Nobody suspected Miss Fazenda of being a tall-grown product, but so it seems. She's going to New York and back after possibly to Cuba. Anyhow the latter is in the report and it sounds reasonable.

Miss Godowsky Recovers.
Dagmar Godowsky, who has been ill with appendicitis in the Angeles Hospital, has returned home. And now Frank Mayo is doing as well as can be expected.

Peggy Hyland Note.
When Peggy Hyland returns from Europe, in which she may become a Robertson-Cole star. Negotiations are now under way.

Ruth Roland to Leave.
Darn it all, just as Ruth Roland has got her new car and just as California is prepping to put on a pretty green mantle, while all the East is frozen, that lovely young Bruntun star is black-and-blue in a serial drama has been ordered to pack up her grease-paint and professional cowgirl outfit and take a trip back to New York.

Miss Roland is to leave as soon as her current picture is finished; she is to make her next one in the East.

The reason given for so cruelly tearing her from the bosom of her family, consisting of her aunt and a bull-pup, is that an eastern background is needed for her next serial, and so she's going to give the good old movie a chance to do its tooth-hanging to help out her art.

Jesse Hampton at Bruntun.
Having leased his own handsome and well-equipped studio, The Special Pictures Corporation, Jesse D. Hampton has decided to move over to Bruntun studios, with the lease probably to be signed today.

Blanche Sweet, who has been a Hampton star for the past two years and who has been traipsing about Europe for quite some time, is expected home shortly and will at once resume the greasy grind of picture-making.

Mabel Normand Ill.
Mabel Normand, Goldwyn star, is reported ill in New York. She is, say the doctors, suffering from her room in the Netherlands Hotel.

Agnes Johnston Signs.
That very original young story writer for the flickers, Agnes Johnston, was signed up yesterday by Metro to write stories.

Miss Johnston's first picture story will be a comedy for Viola Dana.

Del Ruth Weds.
According to the Cupid records yesterday, Hampton Del Ruth is by this time a happily married man, though all efforts last night failed to locate him.

The bride is none other than one of the pretty flock of Fox Sunshine Comedy girls, named Alta Allen, professionally, but whose name is familiar to taking Mr. Del Ruth's as the fact was revealed by the searching white light of the law, providing for the issuing of mar-

Conquer—now in the second week at the Pasadena Community playhouse. The play is being staged under the direction of Glimor Brown, with Mrs. A. H. Palmer, Irvy Torny and Mrs. C. C. Clark, Victor Jory and Wendell Wilson as principal members of the cast. The settings were designed by Edgar J. Chesswright.

Stephen Phillips' Drama.
"Paula and Francesca," the Stephen Phillips drama, will be presented under the direction of Miss Neely Dickson, beginning Monday night at the Hollywood Community Theater. The cast will include Conrad Nagel, Ann Forrest, Helen Jerome, Gwendolyn Logan, Philip Hubbard, Monroe Addington and others.

Owen Davis Comedy.
The premiere of Owen Davis' new farce, "Marry the Poor Girl," will take place Monday evening at the Little Theater. Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne have the leading roles in this Morocco production.

Overton as Soloist.
Jaimie Overton, Los Angeles violinist and concertmaster of Grauman's orchestra, will be heard as soloist with the musical organization at its twenty-fifth concert, Sunday morning. Instead of a concerto, Overton will play two numbers. Serenade Espagnole (Chaminade-Kretaler), and Moto Perpetuo (Ottokar Novacek).

The orchestral program will include Smetana's "Bartered Bride" overture, Nevin's suite, "A Day in Venice," selections from Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana," and Waldteufel's "Violette" waltz. All four workingmen of the Nevin composition will be played, including "Dawn," "The Gondolier," "Venetian Love Song," and "Good Night."

Tony Moreno Returns.
After two years in serials, Antonio Moreno didn't think he was taking much of a chance by umpiring a ball game at the Arizona State penitentiary where scenes were being made for his first feature, "Three Men in a Boat." One team was composed of nine murderers and the other of eight murderers and a burglar.

The star has just returned to this city from Florence, Ariz., where the first scenes were taken, and is starting interiors at the studio. Chester Bennett is directing.

Jean Calhoun plays opposite.

Meighan Soon to Return.
Thomas Meighan, Paramount star, accompanied by Tom Forman, his director, and several members of the eastern cast, will return to Hollywood in order to begin work about December 1 on final scenes of his new picture, "The Quarry," which has been principally made in New York.

Organists Engaged.
L. Earl Abel and J. Nelson Wolpert have been signed as organists at the Kinema Theater, according to announcement by Business Manager W. L. Newberry. It is also stated that a number of improvements are being made in the organ at the house.

Ray Coming to Palace.
Charles Ray is to appear in "Sudden Jim," a five-reel romance of the woods, next week, at the Palace Theater.

GET SHINERS FOR REALISM.
In his new Paramount production, which opens Monday at Grauman's Theater, William S. Hart had to fight seven outlaws, from 8 o'clock one night until 4:30 the following morning—all for motion-picture realism. He really fought, too. After the battle was over, Bill Hart and most of the men had suffered enough bruises to welcome a few capacity audiences are attending days' rest. The unfortunate spent the performances of "Sis Stoops to the time comparing 'shiners'.

Standard Oil Gushers prove Vista Del Mar holdings!

In one direction—the Standard's Surf well, which has encountered the Huntington Beach oil sands. Directly opposite, the 1000-barrel Well No. 2 and the colossal Bolsa Chica gusher. And on a straight line between these wells lies the property of VISTA DEL MAR OIL COMPANY!

Every geologist and oil expert who has visited the field concedes that this location is practical proof of production from Vista Del Mar holdings!

Driller Jack McKeon

Undoubtedly the best and most experienced driller in California has been secured to operate the well. Everything is in readiness, awaiting the turn of the switch to start the big electric drill toward production level.

The Company plans to keep one rig constantly at work until 8 wells have been drilled into production! Estimated earnings from even TWO stock wells as have already been secured in Huntington Beach amount to 200% annually on the 300,000 shares of stock which will be outstanding after the company is fully financed for completing these two wells. Information on YOUR opportunity to share in the profits of Vista Del Mar is yours for the asking. The coupon or a phone call will bring details.

The nutriment to be derived from pure, fresh, clean MILK—and especially its benefits for fast growing youngsters in school—is not surpassed in any other form of food. Their little bodies must be robust and properly nourished if they are to stand high in the class.

Give them all the MILK they will drink. A quart of MILK a day for each child is an excellent rule and should be the very minimum. It will soon bring bright eyes and round, rosy cheeks. But be sure the MILK is the Purest and Cleanest obtainable. The best is just good enough.

BAER FAVORED FOR CONGRESS.

Banker-Educator is Proposed for Vacancy in Ninth.

T. P. Killian of El Monte and Atty. Goudge Considered.

Long Beach Pays Last Honors
to C. F. Van de Water.

Sentiment in the Ninth Congress District, where a conference will be held shortly to select a candidate to fill the vacancy created by the death of Congressman-elect Van de Water, favors John Willis Baer, Pasadena banker and former president of Occidental College, as a likely choice, according to an unofficial canvass of that district conducted by Republican leaders. It is expected that friends will present Mr. Baer's name at the coming conference. Others mentioned in the same connection are Thomas P. Killian of El Monte, active in the walnut-growing industry, and Herbert Goudge, Los Angeles attorney, who is representing the railroad interests in the Plaza union terminal fight. Mr. Killian is said to be strongly favored by the walnut growers of the Ninth District, among whom Mr. Van de Water won heavy support at the recent election. Mr. Baer was urged to enter the contest two years ago, but declined the opportunity. Mr. Goudge is a new factor in the situation. Others who are favored by groups of the Republican party in the district are Supervisor Dodge, Councilman Criswell and Montaville.

Announcement of a plan to call a conference to consider candidates to succeed Mr. Van de Water was made last night by Alfred L. Bartlett, chairman of the Republican County Central Committee, through Mrs. R. L. Richardson, secretary, as follows:

"The Republican State and County Central committees will call a conference for the purpose of endorsing candidates in the Ninth Congress District, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Congressman-elect Van de Water. This conference will be called as soon as suitable arrangements have been made."

Galen H. Welch, chairman of the Republican Congress Committee of the Ninth District, yesterday sent a communication to J. A. Allard of Pomona, George E. Waldo of Pasadena, W. E. Evans of Glendale, E. C. Denio of Long Beach and Alfonso Moore of Whittier, asking them to meet at the office of Chairman Bartlett on Saturday at 10 a.m. to prepare a call for an official conference to consider a candidate. The men to whom this call was addressed are all Republican leaders in their respective sections of the district.

VAN DE WATER FUNERAL.
Hundreds of representative Southern California citizens, including State legislators, municipal officials and representatives of various civic and political organizations joined the thousands of Long Beach citizens who yesterday afternoon paid respect to the memory of Charles F. Van de Water, Congressman-elect of the Ninth California District, who met his death in an automobile accident near Walnut last Friday night. Business was practically at a standstill in Long Beach during the funeral.

Reposing beneath a wealth of flowers, the casket lay at the foot of the altar in the church where Mr. Van de Water had served as member and officer. Here his body lay in state from 11 o'clock in the morning till 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. It was passed during this period by an unbroken procession

RICH "INDIGENT" FINED, JAILED.

Sheep-Raising Smuggler Told
That Earns Him a Judicial Reprimand.

Diego Totonic, who is said to have $18,000 in an Elko (Nev.) bank, accumulated through sheep raising, though he long posed as an indigent at San Diego and elsewhere, was assessed a fine of $100 and given four years in the Federal penitentiary on McNeil Island by U. S. District Judge Bledsoe yesterday, after he had been found guilty by a jury of smuggling fourteen Chinese across the international border.

Totonic took the stand in his own defense, but his testimony was so obviously untruthful that Judge Bledsoe reprimanded him for taking up the time of the jury in finding him guilty.

The central section of the main church auditorium immediately facing the casket was occupied during the funeral services, which began at 1:30 o'clock, by the pallbearers, the honorary pallbearers, visiting friends from other cities, directors of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, directors of the Long Beach National Bank, directors of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce and members of the office force of the C. F. Van de Water Company.

The section to the left was occupied by members of the Republican County Central Committee, members of the Long Beach Republican Club and representatives of the Cullinan Land Company. The Sunday school rooms on the same side of the building were used to accommodate the women's organizations of the church. The section to the right of the pulpit was open to the public. The balcony of the church was reserved for members of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, the Y.M.C.A., the Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, American Legion and Progressive Business Men's Club, who immediately after the service filed from the edifice and took their places in front of the hearse for the procession to the cemetery.

Impressive services were conducted in the church by the Rev. Lewis Thurber Guild, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and the Rev. S. T. Westhafer of Hollywood, who was pastor of a church in Chatsworth, Tenn., formerly attended by Mr. and Mrs. Van de Water. The two clergymen and Congressman-elect Van de Water, who died in the harbor development, because he did not have confidence in accomplishing anything on the trip, though urged to go. He would not let the people pay for it.

KIND TO OLD PEOPLE.
"To love kindness means good will, and he radiated it. The automobile in which he had so carefully driven more than 80,000 miles, was unusually filled with people to whom he was showing courtesy. Never was there a Sunday that he did not convey a number of aged, crippled people from church," said the pastor.

"This kindly, clean-hearted gentleman would not permit one personal attack to be made in the campaign. He yielded to the call of the city and district to run for Congress, regarding it as a patriotic duty as he did the need of men when he left his three little children and wife behind and went to Monterey Presidio to train for the Army. He had passed the age limit by six months and to his lifelong regret, was turned down."

Following the recessional the vast assemblage stood at attention as the pallbearers removed the casket from the church. Hundreds of persons unable to gain admission to the church were waiting outside the gray-walled edifice when the bearers emerged, accompanied by a guard of honor and closely followed by honorary pallbearers, representing the City Commission, Chamber of Commerce, Y.M.C.A., and individuals.

The pallbearers were Galen Welch, W. M. Cook, Dr. Townsend, E. E. Buffum, W. H. Wallace and R. H. Gossum.

Honorary pallbearers included representing the Chamber of Commerce, President C. A. Buffum, and Secretary Lynn W. Ballard; Mayor W. T. Lumsby and Commissioners John D. Seale, W. M. Peek, Harry R. Riley and Eugene E. Fincher representing the Y.M.C.A. Other honorary pallbearers were R. H. Young, Carl Williams, C. F. Wadham, Dr. B. T. Maltby, E. H. Jackson, H. B. Clifton, Dr. A. T. Covert, Walter Barber, D. L. Robbins, E. J. Wistman, P. B. Hatch, Dr. Walter B. Hill, B. Houssels, Dr. E. R. Harvey, John F. Craig, E. J. Purser and Maj. Walter F. Lindeberger.

A guard of eight men in uniform, representing the local post of the American Legion, marched beside the hearse as the cortege left the church for Sunnyside Cemetery. Hundreds of mourners followed the body to the grave.

As the remains were lowered to their last resting place, Dr. Guild read the burial ritual of the First Methodist Church and pronounced a benediction.

Almost countless floral offerings were banked high inside the church hall of the church. There were hundreds of floral pieces from individuals throughout the Southland and scores from organizations.

when crowds who had attended a high religious mass in honor of Thomas MacSwiney, killed at the end of a British bayonet charge at the end of the war, marched down 4th St. from the city hall to the Union Square area.

After a light participated in hundreds of Irish sympathizers, the marchers were violently interrupted by a mob of about 200 men, who were armed with clubs and stones, and who were shouting
"No more Irish!" and
"No more MacSwiney!"
The marchers were driven back to the city hall and the march ended.

When the storm of the day had passed, the offending banner was burned, the Right Rev. Michael Cullen, pastor of St. Patrick's, at the ministerial robes, rushed to the scene.
